Sept 12th 1849

were [illegible] of "their" arrangements, L. making open sleeves to her pelisse dress.
Monday 17. They were up by light & at 7 in the Train for Berlin to take the Lions for Worsley. My head was in such a state that I laid till after they were gone & then crept out. I have felt poorly enough ever since the day is dreadful, out-doggings the doggiest day of Aug. There is an article in this morning Advertiser quoting from the correspondent of the London Times that "Mr Brown, the black at home produces a feeling of silent hostility against the slaveholding states of it. By his description of the horrors of slavery, & if more be not said with delivered by one half of the Union against the other it is not to be attributed to Mr Brown."
The writer who signs himself a friend to Peace & Freedom goes on to regret that people in Mr Brown's unfortunate suspected state of mind should be put forward as a Peace Leader so & calls it "a strange beginning." On the papers here notice Brown's speech, likewise his presence at [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible]
[illegible] period [illegible]
Friday 14. I wrote this morning to Warren I Newey worked on the Chick cove. Pa mailed. Came Mary to go to a Sewing Meeting at Mrs Lovely & Deborah Stan down there. Mrs Fifield called. told us She wished Mary to let Wm Rowe wife pe in C. Plains & asked me if I thought She would take him & let him have Henry's room. I said No, whereat she was enraged & said she would leave for Mary to decide." I told her yes she was abundantly able to come to her decision & then urged to this came Libbie Mrs Pease & Fannie have called. Sam Libbie to night.
Saturday 15. To day has been a pretty busy June day, such as we not been favored time as Adelaide & Deborah are getting ready to go to Worcester. Newey came in at 10 in the morning from N.Y. was Warren very well himself & went [illegible]

MS A-6.2.24.90